 - All pre-recorded music to be played during the performance must be sent to the Cultural Board by April 6th and will be checked for time and sound quality.
2. Other than any invited performers, every on-stage cultural participant of BANC Nobobarsho event must be a 2024 member. Cultural board will check the validity of membership of the participant(s) before the submitted form is taken for any further consideration.
 3. Participation in a single performance, by an applicant, is preferable. Participation in dual performances is only allowed if each of the performances has 3 or more applicants (for the essence of time). Guideline for dual participation does not apply to applicants who are accompanying instrumentalists (like accompanying with harmonium, tabla, dhol or similar), backstage, technical, and other non-performing participants.
 4. Cultural applications must be completed with all the requested information. Incomplete forms will not be considered. Any delay in fulfilling missing details will result in moving the position of the order of receipt of the submission to its then current last position.
 5. Maximum duration allowed–

 - Duet program: 10 minutes
 - Group (3 + participants): 15 minutes
 - The Cultural Secretary reserves the right to end the performance if any program goes beyond the agreed-upon time duration.

Last date of cultural form submission: Wednesday, April 3rd, 2024, 9 pm.

A communication will be sent immediately to members, notifying that the application window has been closed. All applications submitted before the total allotted time was reached, will be considered for the required next steps to go forward.
 8. Submission of cultural form will populate an auto-generated acknowledgement to the sender. This is only a notification that the submission has reached the Cultural board and does not confirm acceptance of the submission in any manner.

9. Program coordinators will be informed immediately if applications show of a program being a repeat. The decision to keep/cancel the submission(s) for further consideration, will be the responsibility of the involved program coordinators.
10. After the deadline date, the Cultural Secretary will validate each entry in the order they were received, and then reach out to the program coordinator(s) to confirm acceptance or not. Please note, this may take 2-3 days, depending on the number of entries submitted.
11. The chosen time of the Final performance will be decided by the Cultural board and will be communicated to the program coordinator(s) the week of the event. The Cultural board reserves the right for final decisions.
